Award for local / regional artist

In keeping with long standing tradition the Dick Biles Encouragement Award of $100, will be presented to a local or regional artist, as an encouragement to an emerging artist. This award recognizes the contribution to art in northern South Australia by Dick Biles in establishing the Courthouse Gallery in 1979. Dick was inaugural and long-term President of both the RRHAS and the Laura Folk Fair.

Barbara Kleinig Junior Art Award

Primary school students from the catchment area of Gladstone High School may participate in this award which is promoted through the schools. The senior section of this award is open to students of Gladstone High School.
